The amendment filed August 4, 2005 has been entered and made of record as paper no. 0805.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jung et al (KR 1020030001217 A, cited by Applicants).

Jung et al disclose a ferroelectric memory device comprising an integrated circuit substrate (51), a bottom interlayer dielectric layer (74), a plurality of ferroelectric capacitors (82), a top interlayer dielectric layer (83a and 85a), and a plate electrode (87) contacting top surfaces of at least two neighboring ones of the plurality of ferroelectric capacitors.
